Successful Performance of "Carmen." The Drury Grand Opera Company, the only operatic organization in the world composed entirely of negroes, will give its second annual performance a week from to-morrow night at the Carnegie Lyceum. Gomez's rarely heard opera "Il Guarany" has been selected this year as the work best adapted to the purposes of the company, which last year sang "Carmen" at the Lexington avenue Opera House. The audience last spring

ance seems likely to receive the same liberal support from the members of Theodore Drury's race in New York.

Theodore Drury, who sings the leading role in the opera, is a negre musician of this city who has for some years been interested in the musical progress of his race. He has frequently organized concerts given exclusively by black musicians and last spring attempted his first representation of grand opera. He was the success of that first venture that led him to decide on an annual production of a grand opera by negroes.

Goinez composed the opera in 1870, and it was first sung in the same year at La Scala in Muan, where the composer had made his studies. He was a native of Brizil and dedicated his opera to the Emperor Dom Pedro II, the ruler of Brazil when the opera was performed.

The story is drawn from the history of the country dering the Portuguese occupation in 1560 and deals with the struggles of a band of Spanish adve turers to rob a noble Portuguese of his treasures and his daughter. The

MAN WITH BROKEN SPINE. Operations Performed on Three Vertebres, but

Patient Is Getting Well. While dancing at Glendale, L. I., last August Joseph Lennon fell from the platform and injured his back. He was sent to the hospital at Jamaica, where three vertebres of his spinal column were operated on. Lennon railied after the operation, but while he could read and talk he had no control over either his and talk he had no control over either his arms or legs. Before Dr. Herbert K. Noble performed the operation he performed a similar one on a dead body. It took him four hours to remove the broken portions of bone from Lennon's spine.

A few weeks after the operation Lennon was able to sit up in bed and in February he was able to move his toes a little. Gradually he has recovered the use of all his limbs and about the middle of March he was able to stund up. Then he began to make his way about the ward by holding on to the beds. Oradually he gained until he could stand alone, and last Monday he took four steps alone. Since then he has walked the entire length of the ward alone. It is predicted that in a short time he will be able to walk out of the hospital.

and Lay for Him With a Revolver. John J. Hill of Jersey City has filed a bill in the Court of Chancery for a divorce from his wife Nora on the grounds of extreme cru-elry and desertion. They were married at Hoosick Falls, N. Y., on June 13, 1885, and have Hoosick Falls, N. Y., on June 13, 1885, and have five children who are living in an orphan asylum. Hill alleges that his wife became an inebriate three years after their marriage. He scolded her for drinking, he says, and she hursed a lighted lamp at him which struck him on the arm and badly burned it. She threw a fiation after him, he alleges, while he was trying to escape. Hill left home after this, he says, and on his return his wife scaded him with the contents of a teapot. They lived together until she pulled a revolver on him. After the final separation, he says, Mrs. Hill lay in wait for him several times on the street with red pepper and a loaded revolver.
